The Plants came to hand last evening in first rate order.

T. C. HILL.

St. John's, Nfld., June 27, 1882.

H. Harris, Esq. : Dear Sir,—The Plants came to hand in very good condition. Yours truly, C. R. THOMPSON.

Saint John Rural Cemetery, 6th June, 1882.

Mr. Harris : Dear Sir,—Send me 6 more Weeping Elms, good as the others

Yours truly, JOHN CROOKSHANKS, Superintendent.

Sydney, C. B., 13th June, 1882.

Received Bulbs and box of Plants all right ; thanks for the Lily.

Yours, MRS. B. ARCHIBALD.

Dorchester, July 4, 1882.

H. Harris, Esq.—Plants received all right. Yours truly,

BLAIR BOTSFORD.

Sydney, July 20, 1882.

Dear Sir,—The Plants are just to hand, and I have to thank you for the very careful manner in which they were packed.

Yours truly, THOS. C. HILL.

Chatham, 1st August, 1882.

H. Harris, Esq., Halifax : Dear Sir,—The flowers arrived all safe.

Yours, &c., GEORGE LEE.

Orono, Me., Oct. 7, 1882.

Mr. Harris, Dear Sir,—Enclosed the amount due on your bill. The Plants arrived in due time in good order, and we were much pleased with your choice.

I remain yours truly, J. N. CHASE.

Truro, Nov. 1, 1882.

Dear Sir,—Enclosed you will find P. O. order due you for Bulbs, which arrived per mail a few days ago all safe and sound. Yours truly,

W. D. MUIR.

H. Harris, Esq., Halifax.

Sackville, Oct. 17, 1882.

Mr. Harris, Dear Sir,—I enclose the amount due for Plants received. They came to hand in good order, and are looking well.

Yours respectfully, MRS. C. F. ALLISON.

H. Harris, Esq., Halifax.

Stellarton, N. S., Oct. 31, 1882.

Dear Sir,—I thank you for the Bulbs you kindly sent, and the liberal count, which I assume to have been intentional. As you have not Umbellatum, kindly send me the two varieties of Ornithogalum which you have, and oblige,

Yours truly, H. S. POOLE.

Annapolis, May 2, 1882.

Mr. Harris: Dear Sir,—Your Plants gave great satisfaction, while Plants from —— were total failures. One person got two dozen Roses from the States and lost them all. Yours sincerely, G. T. BINGAY, M. D.

Amherst, May 5, 1882.

I got some Scarlet Horse Chestnuts from you some few years ago and they are doing finely. Want nine more; send as soon as season will allow.

Yours truly, W. A. D. MORSE.

Charlottetown, Nov. 15th, 1882.

H. Harris, Esq.: Dear Sir,—Enclosed please find P. O. order for amount of your account. I took two first prizes at our Provincial Exhibition with the Dahlias you sent. Yours, &c., EDWARD BAYFIELD.

Yarmouth, N. S., Dec. 2, 1882.

Received parcel to-day. Perfectly satisfied with selection. I must thank you for the care and extra trouble you have taken in forwarding package.

Yours truly, ELLEN G. BROWN.

Sackville, Sept. 1, 1882.

My Dear Sir,—The Plants came to hand all right, and were set out that night. They are doing well. Yours truly,

ALFRED D. SMITH.

Herbert Harris, Esq.,

Truro, August 17, 1882.

Dear Sir,—Allow me to return you thanks for the fine Plants you have furnished me this Spring. I may say that I have spent many dollars in New York and Boston, with no satisfactory results, and I mean in future to get only the best, as I find you can supply them,

Your obedient servant, R. H. CURRIE.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Nov. 14, 1882.

Dear Sir,—The Plants arrived in good condition, considering the rough handling they appeared to have received on board the boat. They declared they were not on board and I came very near not getting them at all. So far as you were concerned, y ur part was well attended to. Please receive thanks for it, and additionals.

Respectfully yours,

A. SMALLWOOD.

Barrington, July 29, 1882.

Mr. Harris, Sir :—I hasten to thank you for the beautiful Flowers I received by the packet in such beautiful order. They are growing finely.

Yours respectfully, E. SARGENT.
